My favorite football player is Tim Tebow. He is the quarterback for the Florida gators. I found his phone number and I got him to come to my house. He came and we played with my Florida gator football. He threw the ball so hard it pushed my stomach in when I caught it. After that we played my football game. He beat me, but I was close. The score was 22 to 17. I had 17 and Tim had 22. Then we worked out at my house in the garage. We played real football with teams because I gathered up my friends. My team won, but this was another close game. The score was 31 to 27. My team had 31 and Tim team had 27. We had so much fun. Then something bad happened. Tim had to go back to his house with his wife and kids.

My favorite sports player is Peyton Manning. He plays for the Indianapolis colts. The colts are a professional football team. If I spent the whole day with him it would be fun. First, we would go to the movies and watch a new movie. Then, we'll help people and earn lots of money to buy a huge palace for my family and me. Next, we'll buy a really huge T.V. with thousands of channels. We'll watch Disney and Nick all day. Last we'll ride around town and go out to eat with my mom. After riding around town, we'll go back to the palace with my brothers, sister, and mom. Then he'll go home and I'll stay at my palace. That is what will happen if I spent the day with Peyton Manning.

chose basketball. I started the next day. My coach introduced me to the team and I could not tell whether the team liked me or not. They said I didn't have a good shot and I couldn't dribble. But, I didn't quit because I had been training for over a year. I was the best player in the NBA. We won every game so we got to play in the finals. In the first quarter of the finals my teammates kept passing the ball to me. I passed the ball back to my teammates and the time expired. The other team scored the first points. My teammates passed the ball to me again and I tried something. I was shaking and baking and I went up for a dunk. The crowd went wild. The score was tied up with seventeen seconds left in the fourth quarter. I stalled with the ball until it was three seconds left. I shot the ball and the crowd was silent. Swish! I made the shot. With two seconds left on the clock the other team had to shoot the ball from half court. They missed. We won the game. The score was 92 to 90. We won by two points. Basketball is my favorite sport and I am my favorite athlete.

Wow! If one day I could spend time with my favorite athlete it would be with Labron James. First, Labron and I would play a game of basketball. He would call Shaq and I would call Kobe Bryant and we would play team basketball. Swish! That's me shooting a three pointer as Kobe assists me. Next, we would go to the shoe store. I'll buy some Jordan's so I'll be able to dunk over Labron's head. Lastly, we'll play NBA 2K10 on my Wii. I'll beat him in that game and I would let him pick his own team. Now you know the time I spent with my favorite athlete.

If I was a basketball player I would want to be the best basketball player in the world. I would want to be famous and I would be rich. I would be rich because I like to play basketball. I want to see the crowd cheering for me. I would have a lot of trophies. I want my mom to be proud of me and I would also be proud of myself for making it so far. I always dreamt of being a basketball player. Do you like to play basketball? I do. One time I made 30 straight shots. After that I missed a couple of shots, but it was still fun. I always play basketball when I come home from school because it is my favorite sport. I like to shoot the ball and score points. Every time I play basketball I get better and better. I often think about becoming a basketball player just for fun. I ask my mom can I play basketball and she says, "as long as I keep my grades up." I am a great student. I always keep my clip on green. I am really great at being a great student.
