Wheel! "It is hot." Let me tell you a story about my Spring Break! One hot sunny day I was outside playing in my Hannah Montana pool with my friends. We were having lots of fun when suddenly my dog got out. She tried to get into the pool, but luckily she couldn't because her nails were trimmed. I thought that this would be the worst Spring Break ever. But, then my dad came out of the house with a puppy. I said, "whose puppy is that?" He said, "yours." I said, "really, thank you." I named the puppy Spot. Dad said, "that is a cute name." I took the puppy in the house and put him on the couch and turned on the T.V. I begin to walk away when I decided to turn around to look at the puppy and I saw something brown on the couch. I screamed and said, "THIS IS THE WORST SPRING BREAK EVER!"

I am about to go on Spring Break from school. My family and I are going on a cruise. On the cruise we will eat until the boat sinks. I will relax and watch the water to see if I can see some fishes swimming near the boat. Also, my family and I are going to New York. There we will enjoy the cold weather, the load of traffic, and the stores that sell the Wii games at expensive prices. After that my family and I will go to the wonderful water of Atlantis. We can swim in the majestic water and experience a mountain full of fun. So, when we are done with all of this we will go back home to relax from our long time away from here. I will have fun with my dog, watch T.V., and sleep while eating a corndog with a spoon. Then we will take our dog on a walk from Florida to California. That is what I will do this Spring Break.

We are going to go to the movies on the first day of Spring Break which is today. We went to the new museum. We saw fossils. We left the museum and went home. We stayed at our house and watched T.V. The next day we went to a baseball game. The Red Sox's won the game. The next week we went mountain hiking. We rode bikes down the mountain side. The next day we went to the zoo. We saw a huge tiger. This is what I did during my Spring Break.

On Spring Break I'm going to go to Alabama to a pecan factory and watch them make pecans. Also while I'm in Alabama my dad is going to show me some historical places from years ago. I will also eat and visit my family. We will go to the park where there are huge pieces of marble. We will also go to this place called Peach Park. There we will eat dinner and watch the river flow. The next morning we will go horse back riding. Where we go in Alabama is four hours away. On the way there in the car we play our laptop's, watch a little T.V. and have lots of fun on our way to Alabama!

Once on Spring Break my family and I went to Miami, Florida. We were in for a real surprise. "Get out of the car" said my dad! We are staying at a hotel right in front of the beach. We unloaded the surf boards, suite cases, and clothes. The first thing my dad said we were going to do is check into the hotel and go surfing at the beach. It was a perfect day a light blue sky, warm climate, a perfect day for going to the beach! The salty sea spray blew against my face, about time we went to the beach again! I strapped the cord to my left ankle, got the surf board and jumped into the water. The water was cool and refreshing. Today the waves were pretty huge. I thought to myself it doesn't matter, but boy I was wrong! A good sized wave is coming, I can handle this one easily, I thought! The wave hit me. I stood up and started balancing out the board, I really regret saying this part, but I'm writing a story so unfortunately I have to tell you people. So then I leaned forward to much and then "Whoosh!" I tumbled over and landed head first into the sand. When I lifted my head I swear everyone at the beach started laughing. I had sand everywhere. That day I learned a lesson. Never to think too much of myself!
