Entertainment is just something that you do in your spare time. I like having fun with the family, watching a movie, or just going to the mall or the park with some friends. I like doing a lot of things for entertainment, but the most entertainment I really love to do is spend time with the family. I love spending time with the family, not just spending time with my mom or sister or brother, but spending time with an aunt, uncle, or grandma. Most of my family lives in New Orleans. Since we live in Pensacola it's not so far away, but we never really go there. I love New Orleans and I'm always trying to get my mom to let us go there for the weekend or something. When we finally go, I'm jumping out of my seat and yelling "hello New Orleans." It's so fun spending time with the family. I'm going to help out with the daycare that my aunt is going to open during the summer, when summer comes, I won't want to go. I really don't care about the money, but spending time with my aunt even if both of us will have little crying babies in our arms. It's fun to spend time with family in every way. I hate it when we have to leave, but I know we will come back soon. Like I said before spending time with the family is what entertains me.
