In one week, I spend 35 hours of my life playing video games. I have decided to use that time more wisely by practicing my mail carrier skills. By checking the mail from the mailbox and running away from dogs. I have to practice driving because when I deliver mail I might crash into some ones house.

This time it's entertainment. My favorite entertainer is Jeff Dunham. Jeff Dunham is a ventriloquist. He is awesome and he has one of my favorite puppets, Walter. First of all, Jeff is a ventriloquist. I picked this topic because I have never heard of a ventriloquist. Jeff is probably the greatest thing since Michael Jackson. I think I should follow in his footsteps. On the other hand, Jeff is awesome! Jeff is awesome because he is funny, smart, and cool! I think he is funny because he says that his second dog is weird, but his 100 lbs. golden retriever is awesome like him. Jeff also has one of my favorite puppets, Walter. Walter is funny. Walter is funny because he is mean to people. He is mean to people because he does not like them. That's the end of my story about my favorite entertainer.

Do you think I should choose entertainment? If you said no, than excuse me because I have not written about it yet and I would like to write about it now. I think it is a good topic to choose because I like going to recess because my friend and I get chased by other students. The students chase us and we chase them. When it is time to go in they still play and we do too, but we just can't stop playing, it is so fun.

Do you have a favorite video game? Well I do, and that is what I will tell you about. My favorite video game is Naruto: Clash of Ninja Revolution 2. First, what you do in the game is that you fight people from the show Naruto. You can do these powers that are really cool. Here are some of them. Chidori is a lightning ball in the person's hand. Next, "Rasengan! Boom! What you just heard was the sound of the mighty Rasengan. The Rasengan is a little blue ball that swirls around in the person's hand, and when it hits their enemy, the next thing they know they're swirling around in a blue ball. This special is effective because whips of energy whip your opponent and causes them to spin around and take more damage. Last, what's that thing? That blue ball of lightning. Oh, wait "lightening blade!" "Ahhh!" Just playing! The lightening blade is just like Chidori, but way stronger! If you charge it all the way, it gets stuck inside of them and shakes them from the inside. Do I even need to tell you why it's effective? Those are some of the powers from the game, Naruto: Clash of Ninja Revolution 2.

If you went to the North Pole how will it feel to you? Once upon a time there was a little girl sleeping. She was dreaming about Santa Claus. Santa Claus came into the little girl house and woke her up and took her to the North Pole. Then Santa showed the little girl everywhere around the North Pole and the little girl helped Santa with everything he had to do. Then the little girl had fun and Santa took the little girl back home. Then they said good-bye to each other. Did you like this story because I enjoyed this story very much?
