I just love movies. There are so fun to watch, but my favorite movie might be Alvin and the Chipmunks. The movie is about three wacky chipmunks. There's Alvin the troublesome leader, Simon the smart one, and the cute chubby one is Theodor. They use to live in the forest, but the tree they lived in got cut down for a Christmas tree at a music company and they met a man who was a musician named Dave. He lost his job because he did not write a good song. So he found out the chipmunks amazing talent to sing. So the musician took them in and took care of them. Later the musician let them sing for his boss at the music company. The chipmunks were afraid of the eyes staring at them. So they couldn't sing. Later that night the chipmunks went to Dave's boss house and sang for him. So when they went shopping Dave heard this song, so the chipmunks were becoming famous faster than a blink of an eye. But things became bad when Dave's boss spoiled the chipmunks, and turned them against Dave. The worst thing is this happened near Christmas! Days past and Dave began to miss the chipmunks. So he went to the concert they were performing in L.A. He succeeded to bring them home for Christmas and they were happy as can be.

The Nintendo Wii is the best game system ever to be invented! The Wii has cool controllers called the Wii controller, the nunchuck, and the classic Wii controller. Also the Nintendo Wii lets you use Gamecube controllers. The Nintendo Wii has many games and you can use Gamecube games also. The Wii also has a program called Wii Ware. This program allows the user to download some other games to it with a Wii card with Wii points. One of my favorite games is Wii sports. Another program that runs in the Wii is the Wii forecast. This program lets you know the weather in your area. To use the programs you must have either wired or wireless internet connection. Since this system can get internet connection than you also get another program to access the internet on the Wii. The Wii also has Wii news to tell you what's going on around the world. So that's why the Wii is the best game system.

Merry Christmas! Ho Ho Ho. I'm going to tell you about my favorite Christmas movie. It's Santa Claus! Santa Claus one is about Charlie (the little boy) and Scott (the dad). Charlie was staying with his dad for Christmas then he heard a thump on the roof! He hurried to his dad to tell him that Santa Claus was on the roof, but Scott didn't believe him, but he went outside to check any ways. When he got out side he couldn't believe his eyes. It was really Santa. When he saw Santa he wanted to get his attention so he said, "hey!" Santa Claus got startled and slipped off the roof and onto the ground and it's a rule never let a human see you so he evaporated. Scott picked up the jacket and put it on and found a card in the pocket. It said, "When you read this card you will become Santa." But, he didn't believe the card was right, but later on his hair was turning white and his belly got big and he was Santa Claus. He went to the doctor because he would shave his beard and it would grow back in less than 5 seconds. The doctor said it was old age. Scott went home (North Pole) he was getting ready to leave (to give gifts to kids around the world). On Christmas night he left and he got to Charties mom's house where he got arrested for breaking into people's houses. He kept on trying to tell people he really was Santa, but they didn't believe him. Luckily he had this special watch to tell the elves to come and rescue him! When they got to the police station they trapped all the police men and got Scott out of jail and continued to deliver presents all around the world. That was my favorite Christmas movie. P.S. It was not all the details.

This time I won't talk about wrestling. I want to talk about Christmas. What did you get for Christmas? When I wrote this story it wasn't Christmas yet. So in the next issue I will tell you what I got for Christmas. So Now I can talk about wrestling. When John Cena was fighting Sheamus, well Sheamus won the title. Now, I am not really happy about that. I hope I don't ever see Sheamus! I will leave you with that thought so you can read my paper in the next issue!
