

would go into the water to find out about different kinds of fish (e.g. whales, sharks, and other smaller fish). We would also learn about krill fish which is what whales eat. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand why second grade is my favorite grade. Ultimately, second grade is my favorite grade because we baked and cooked food. Miss Goethe would always cook brownies. Her brownies would be moist in the inside and chewy on the outside. We always wanted her to cook them everyday, but she couldn't. She told us we had to earn them. I have just proven why second grade is my favorite grade. By now you should have a clear understanding why second grade is my favorite grade. Second grade is my favorite grade because we always had parties, learn fun things, and best of all baked and cooked food.

Warning, you have just entered the elaboration zone. Be prepared to encounter amazing facts and juicy details about why first grade is my favorite grade in school. Well, these are the three reasons why first grade is my favorite grade in school. One reason is that I get good grades. The second reason is first grade is fun. The third reason is I don't miss anything. Hold on tight as this adventure begins 5, 4,3,2,1! Primarily, the reason first grade is my favorite in school is because I get good grades. Every time we have a test I get a 100 percent. The test has only twenty questions. I am done with the test in less than 15 minutes. Example: Is first grade easy to you? Well, it is to me. All we have on math tests are problems like; $9+1=10$, $8+8=16$, and $1+1=2$. Reading is the same thing it just don't have addition and subtraction. It has questions about stories. That's the reason I get good grades. If you like my first reason then you will love what comes next. Furthermore, another reason why first grade is my favorite grade in school is because it is fun. See pre-k and kindergarten they have fun a lot because they don't know all the stuff that first grade all the way to college know. First grade do have a lot of fun, but they have a little work to do and they have center time. After center time they get back to work and then it is time for lunch. After lunch then they go outside. Now you should have a clear understanding why I like being in first grade.

Here is my chance to introduce, elaborate, and review on some of the reasons why pre-k is my favorite grade in school. Pre-k is my favorite grade in school. Pre-k is my favorite grade in school because we go outside a lot, play with paint to draw, and play in the sand box. Primarily, pre-k is my favorite grade in school because we go outside a lot. When going outside you will learn that playing with friends can be a lot of fun. When I was in pre-k we used to go outside twice a day to have a marvelous time. It was as fun as singing with Beyonce on stage, but not that much fun. "I used to love hanging out with my friends Francheska and Londell" I replied. Francheska and I always go outside to play in our pink play house. We have a blast. You've come one step closer to understanding why pre-k is my favorite grade in school. Furthermore, pre-k is my favorite grade in school because we play with paint to draw. In pre-k we had an awesome time painting with each other. We even painted pictures for the teacher Ms. Freelin. She always put them in her home on her refrigerator and sometimes in the patient's waiting room at the Doctor's office. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand why pre-k is my favorite grade in school. Ultimately, pre-k is my favorite grade in school because in pre-k we play in the sand box. Inside the sand box was a lot of sand. Some kids used to build sand castles, but now they are big kids. A few other kids built mountains and used dinosaurs to knock them down. That was the best thing about playing with sand. I recall when I was at home and then went to the sand box and built an enormous sand castle. There's no doubt on why pre-k is my favorite grade in school. By now you should have a clear understanding on why pre-k is my favorite grade in school. Pre-k is my favorite grade in school because we go outside a lot, we play with paint to draw, and we play in the sand box.
